the Revenue Comr. till the 28th May 1911 & since that date he has been provisional Secy. to the Economic Conference & Secy. to the Agricultural Committee of it. The Chairman of the Agricultural Committee testifies to the approved character of the service rendered by Mr. Subbadam in the latter capacity. As regards the quality of the earlier portion of his service in the 4th class the periodical confidential reports filed in the General Section may be referred to.

2. During this period of three years it is believed that he did not at any time take leave without pay. The point may be made clear by a reference to the Comptroller's office. The Secy. to the Asst Comptroller, G.A.D. post up, it is requested, may be kindly approved.

3. In recommending the promotion the Chairman of the Agricultural Committee also requests the Govt. to consider whether Mr. Subbadam may not be placed in a special grade in view of the valuable service rendered by him & the fact that his advancement has not been as rapid as it might have been. As regards this a reference is

Dear Mr. Ramaswamy,

With reference to your D.O. of the 2nd Instant, I write to say that Mr. K. Subba Rao, Provisional Secretary to the Economic Conference, has had no leave of any kind which would not count towards increments during the period of his three years' service from the 18th June 1909.

But it is doubtful whether the service rendered by him as Secretary, Economic Conference, will count for promotion in his permanent appointment. If Government think that his absence on such duty has not prevented him from securing the same standard of efficiency and experience as he would have secured if he had remained in his permanent appointment they may grant the promotion.

Yours sincerely,

5. G.O. No. 2-838-42/Gen. 36-11-6 dated the 7th August 1911 explicitly state that during his employment as Provincial Secy to the Economic Conference Mr. Subbadan will get his grade pay as Asst Commr. & a local allowance of Rs 50 per mensem. It is not clear why there should still be a doubt as to whether his service in this capacity would count for promotion. Por. II may be consulted if necessary.

Submitted to His Highness.

The accompanying papers relate to the promotion of Mr. K. Subba Rao, Assistant Commissioner, fourth class, Schedule B (Rs.300), to Assistant Commissioner, third class (Rs.350).

2. Mr. Subba Rao was promoted to the fourth class of Assistant Commissioners with effect from 18th June 1909 and has thus rendered three years service in that class. During that period Mr. Subba Rao has rendered good service as Assistant Commissioner attached to the Revenue Commissioner's Office and also in connection with the Economic Conference.

3. Having thus rendered three years approved service generally, Mr. Subba Rao is entitled to promotion to the next higher class. Both the Councillors agree to the promotion which may accordingly be sanctioned.

4. Both as Provisional Secretary to the Conference generally and as Secretary to the Agricultural Committee, he has rendered approved service. He has won the good opinion and recommendation of even the Chairman of the Industries and Commerce Committee. He has worked hard and well and I venture to endorse the recommendations of the Chairmen ~~to~~ and suggest a small increase of Rs.50 per mensem to his allowance for work in connection with the Economic Conference. He is now allowed Rs.50, and as more than a year has elapsed and his usefulness is established, this allowance may, if His Highness pleases, be raised to Rs.100 per mensem, which he has earned and deserved.

Mysore Economic Conference.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that Mr.K.Subba Rau, B.A., Secretary, Agricultural Committee, has put in three years approved service in the fourth class of Assistant Commissioners and to request that with effect from ~~xxx~~ 18th June 1912 he may be promoted to the next higher class.

2. From the 18th June 1906 till 1st June 1909, he was drawing a pay of Rs.250/- plus Rs.50/- personal allowance. From 1st June 1909 the personal allowance ceased. So virtually he has been on the same pay of Rs.300 for 6 years from June 1906 till June 1912. In the interval he has, as the Government are aware, rendered valuable services in several capacities. As he has been thrown back in the service by purely accidental circumstances, I recommend that Government will be pleased to consider whether Mr.Subba Rau may not be placed in a special grade. As Provisional Secretary to the Conference, he has been working directly under the Dewan. As Secretary of the Agricultural Committee he has been doing excellent work.

I have the honor to be,

Your most obedient servant,
